

NoKidding

nyc

Straight Talk from Teen Parents

No Kidding: Straight Talk from Teen Parents is a peer education program that uses teen parents to present the realities of their situation to other teenagers.

No Kidding is available to New York City organizations at NO COST.

No Kidding informs teens about the responsibilities and the challenges of being a teen parent in order to encourage them to wait until they're financially and emotionally stable and in a healthy, committed relationship before having a child.

SESSIONS

The program runs for four sessions covering the following topics:

- 1 Telling our stories
- 2 Understanding Paternity & the Importance of Fatherhood
- 3 Child Support & Money Matters
- 4 Healthy Relationships

REQUIREMENTS

to receive our services

- >> Your organization must provide space for presentations
- >> Must have at least 10 participants
- >> Participants need to be present for two days of presentations for an hour and a half per day.

We provide facilitators and the teaching tools.

To schedule a presentation,

CONTACT:

Lisa Rosario
Director, Teen Pregnancy Prevention at HRA Office of Child Support Enforcement
Email: lisa.rosario@dfa.state.ny.us

NYC™ Human Resources
Administration
Department of Social Services